story, as he had a perfect excuse as he carried large sums of money, and he was in that neighborhood, and all he would have to say was he drove in about forty yards on DeRussey's Lane, saw a horse or a mule and a woman with a light coat, and the bushy-head man - The thought flashed through his mind that something was wrong; on account of the money he had on his person, a creepy feeling overtook him, and he backed away fearing that he might be held up. Mr. Sipple said that he could not consent to this. Mrs. Gibson answered, "Sha, there are a few more persons who are willing to say this, but you offer the better excuse, for you were actually in the neighborhood - I have received $150.00, and Mrs. Fraley, got $50.00 for her story - You like money, I don't see why you won't do this, and if you do this, this is all I have to do to have Mrs. Hall indicted." Mr. Sipple answered, "All the money in Somerville, could not get me to do this - Furthermore, how could I see all this, I had no lights on my care, the lights were out of order, I had lanterns." Mrs. Gibson then told him to think it over, that she would come over to see him as she wanted to buy a two-wheel wagon or cart that he had. She visited him again on November 18, which was on a Saturday, and there put the question to him, if he would corroborate with her; which he refused to do. The newspaper quote Sipple's story correctly.

Mr. Sipple further informed me that Mrs. Gibson made a trip to Berry Farm, which is leased by him, and spoke to the caretaker there; this was on a Wednesday, the day Sipple testified before the Grand Jury, and also on the Friday following.

Mrs. Harriman Simmons, of #1277 Clinton Place, Elizabeth, N.J., who is a State Welfare Worker, is unable to verify information that on three occasions Mrs. Eleanor Mills and Mr. Hall had gone to the Phillips Farm to bring Charlotte home - Also that Charlotte was listed on the county list as a wayward girl.
